The Necron Tombworlds

Building a Necron Army

In games of the Horus Heresy: Age of Darkness, the models under a given player's control are referred to as that player's army. Each army is composed of a single Force Organisation chart (most commonly using the Crusade Force Organisation chart), which will include one or more Detachments. An army whose Primary Detachment is selected from any Army List is considered to have the Faction of that Primary Detachment (for example, an army whose Primary Detachment was selected from the Necrons List would be considered an Necron army). Units from various Sub-factions cannot be mixed in the same Detachment, unless a Special Rule or other ability permits this.

Other, non-Primary, Detachments in the same army may be selected from any other Army List - following any additional restrictions applied, such as the ones on the next page - but each Detachment may only include units from a single Army List, unless another Special Rule states otherwise.

When selecting a Primary Detachment, you must also choose a Sub-Faction for that detachment, in the form of a Necron Dynasty. Each Dynasty provides special bonuses and options for their units and determines the Alliance Levels between other Sub-Factions.

In addition, each Dynasty has a number of allied units that are usually attached to its Tomb Worlds, whether that be Triarch Praetorians watching over the slumbering necrons, a Destroyer Cult filling part of their ranks, or Flayed Ones lurking at the fringes. As such, a Primary Detachment is also allowed to incorporate a number of Allied Units without requiring an entire Allied Detachment be taken, so long as the number of points spent on Triarch, Destroyer, and Flayed models does not exceed 25% of the army's total points.

Force Organisation Charts and Detachments

The maximum and minimum number of units that may be included in a given army is defined by a Force Organisation chart, of which there is one basic chart available, the Crusade Force Organisation chart.

Any Force Organisation chart is made up of one or more Detachments. A Force Organisation chart will always include one Primary Detachment, which must be selected, and may also include a number of optional Detachments which a player may choose to use or ignore. Each Detachment that a player chooses to use as part of their army must use a single Army List, which determines the Faction of that Detachment. Most optional Detachments are not required to be the same Faction as the Primary Detachment, but some Detachments may have special rules which require them to be of a certain Faction (and thus use a specific Army List). Detachments of different Factions in the same army will have additional special rules that determine how they interact (see the Allied Section).

Each Detachment is composed of a number of boxes, each linked to one of the Battlefield Roles. Each of these boxes allows the player to make one selection from the section of their Army List that includes units of the same Battlefield Role. Dark boxes indicate Compulsory selections, which must be included as part of the Detachment, while the lighter boxes indicate optional choices, which are only included as part of the Detachment if the player in question chooses to do so.

Sometimes, a single choice in a Detachment may allow you to select more than one unit, or to vary the Battlefield Role of the unit selected. In all cases, such deviations from the normal procedure will be fully explained in the Force Organisation chart that the Detachment is part of.

Each unit selected to fill a box in any single Detachment must be chosen from the same Army List, and must be of the same Battlefield Role as that of the box. The unit profile in the Army List will dictate the number of points from the points limit that must be spent to add the unit to the player's army. Players continue to spend points to fill boxes in Detachments within the chosen Force Organisation chart until either they run out of points, fill all boxes in all available Detachments or the player chooses to stop.

Nodal Command Force

The legions of a Tomb World appear to have no permanent organizational structure. Each battle, campaign and Harvest causes a specific response from the Tomb World's controlling program leading to an ever-changing chain of command. This is made possible by the Nodal Command system. A Nodal Command system allocates a hierarchy to all of the elements within it, and subsequently gives a greater operational, and decision-making, capacity to certain nodes before slaving lower ranking portions of the system to these nodes.

In battle, Necron Lords form the nodes of this structure and are assigned a hierarchical value which may change over time. As this hierarchy allows for simultaneous control of a large number of Necrons by a high ranking node, while still allowing independent reaction at the level of a Necron Warrior, it allows precise organization of the Necron force as a whole while also allowing detached groups to analyze, and react to, unforeseen situations independently.

When selecting the Nodal Command Force as your Primary Detachment, you must also determine the level at which the Tomb World is operating at. This level determines what Force Organisation slots are available to you alongside what units are considered compulsory. When selecting a higher level, you must take all of the compulsory options for that level and all levels below it. For example, selecting a Decurion Formation has a Compulsory list of: 1 HQ (Silver), 1 HQ (Bronze), 2 Troops. Compulsory units for levels above yours are not Compulsory, you may not include any Force Organization slots above your level at all — the Tomb World has not woken up to that degree.

Necron Line Formation (Bronze Command)

The main bulk of a Necron fighting force, a Bronze level command makes up various formations led by Bronze level Lords. By themselves, these formations are usually the first coalescent response to a Tomb World's invaders, summoned when a Primary Awakener Force encounters threats too potent or complex for them to handle.

The actual formation does vary by Tomb World and Dynasty, however each Line Formation generally contains its Bronze level Lord, a number of Phalanxes of Dynastic Warriors — or occasionally Immortals — that are supported by a small number of specialized assets such as Cyptek Conclaves, Destroyer Cults, Flayed Ones, Canopteks, and Triarch overseers, all allocated by the Tomb World and the Lord themselves.

When part of a Decurion, the usual formation is to appoint four Bronze level Lords to each Decurion, including one or more Line Formations led by the lords.

The Compulsory Headquarters unit for Necron Line Formations must have the Nodal Command (Bronze) special rule.

Primary Detachment: Necron Line Formation (Required)

- Compulsory: 1 HQ (Bronze), 1 Troop
- Optional: +2 Troops, +1 Elite, +2 Fast Attack, +1 Heavy Support, +4 Fortification

Necron Decurion Formation (Silver Reserve Command)

If threats are particularly potent or worthy, a high ranking or competent Lord will be appointed as Nemesor for a campaign, taking place as the overseeing Silver level Nemesor Lord for a Decurion. These oversee a number of Legions made up of Line Formations, each of which are managed by Bronze level Lords as described above. The actual Decurion is a much larger and more competent fighting force than the Line Formation Legions, with further access to superior units and specialized resources as the Tomb World is able to make them available.

As part of a greater Tesseractarion, there may be one or more Decurions, however their leadership varies wildly between organizations. Some prefer to maintain a single competent Lord in control of all Decurions, while other formations call for one Silver level Lord for each Decurion.

The Compulsory Headquarters unit for Necron Decurion Formations must have the Nodal Command (Silver) special rule.

Primary Detachment: Necron Line Formation (Required)

- Compulsory: 1 HQ (Silver), 1 Troop
- Optional: +1 HQ, +2 Troops, +2 Elites, +1 Fast Attack, +1 Heavy Support

Necron Tesseractarion Formation (Gold Priority Command)

The highest level command structure for a Necron force, it is usually led by a Tomb World's Overlord themselves after taking upon the title of Nemesor for the campaign. In particularly rare cases, this may be led by a Platinum level element in the form of a Phaeron — extremely influential and powerful Overlords that lead many worlds, even entire Dynasties — alongside his court of three Gold level Overlords chosen to direct the campaign. The Priority Command directs the Tesseractarion element, fielding its largest and most powerful war machines and forces to war.

The Compulsory Headquarters unit for Necron Tesseractarion Formations must have the Nodal Command (Gold) special rule.

Primary Detachment: Necron Line Formation (Required)

- Compulsory: 1 HQ (Gold)
- Optional: +1 HQ, +1 Phaeron, +1 Troops, +1 Elite, +1 Fast Attack, +2 Heavy Supports

Nodal Command Force Detachment

Primary Awakeners. The first elements activated by the Tomb World are the Tomb Spydys. These hulking custodians see to the initial tasks of ministrating to the stasis tombs. Embued with the powers of resurrection, the Tomb Spydys activate the Raider forces. Meanwhile the second element of the Primary Awakeners, the Scarabs, hasten to secure the interior of the Tomb. In swarms a thousand strong, Scarabs swiftly seek out intruders and carry out any essential maintenance to the Tombs defences.

 Reserve Command. After initial data has been retrieved, the command of all raider forces is subsumed into the Nodal Command of a Necron Lord, usually of Silver-level priority. When required, the Reserve Command will enter battle led by their Necron Lord, who also fulfils the role of being a redundant command unit who can take control of any existing forces should their Necron Lords be destroyed.

♂ Raider Force. Consisting of a small number of Necron Warriors and Scarabs, the Raider force emerges into the outside environment and initially has complete autonomy (within its programming). Its purpose is to scout the surface of the Tomb World and nearby systems, seeking data on the position and status of other races. Destroying a Raider force will result in one of two outcomes: the Tomb World may dispatch a second Raider force on a follow-up mission; the Tomb World may proceed to the second stage of activation.

 Necron Line Formations. The bulk of Necron armies are gathered into this region of the Nodal Command. Led by up to four Bronze-level Necron Lords, the Line Formations consist of a variety of different fighting formations. Ground forces are organised into phalanxes made up of a core of Necron Warriors transported by Monoliths, and supported by secondary units such as Destroyers, Immortals, and so forth. These phalanxes are often accompanied by more specialist formations dubbed "cohorts". The Necron Lords of the Line Formations act as a battlefield command circuit, able to pass information between themselves, upload data to the Platinum-level command, or call upon the Reserve Command for physical support or additional data analysis. Each Tomb World might have dozens of such formations, which are activated by the Tomb Spydres and inserted into or removed from the Nodal Command as required.

Nodal Command – Bronze Network. All communication between the Line Commanders is routed through both the Platinum-level Nodal Command and the Reserve Command Neuron Lord. This redundancy ensures that should any one element of the network be somehow neutralised, communication and command is still possible.

Nodal Command – Gold Network. All data and decisions made at Gold-level are directed through all three Gold-level necron lords, for triple-redundancy. Should a Gold-level Lord be removed in some fashion, one of the Line Commanders will be elevated to Gold-level status to replace the missing Necron Lord.

Priority Command. Three Gold-level Necron Lords form the highest command structure yet encountered on the battlefield. These are responsible for strategic decision making, and are capable of over-riding the communication and control of any Silver or Bronze-level Lords present. They are also capable of committing the most potent forces available to the Tomb World. Include specialist troops such as Pariahs, as well as larger war machines, aerial forces and starships.

 Platinum Commander. No Platinum-level commander has yet been encountered, and its existence is only hypothesised from observing the actions of Gold-level Necron Lords. It is a subject of much speculation whether the Platinum Nodal Command is some creation hidden on a Tomb World, or might perhaps be the Tomb World itself. Techpriests are confident that the Platinum-level Command is not representative of the C'Tar, who do not directly interact in the Nodal Command structure in any discernable way.

Necron Rules

Special Rules

Annihilation Protocols

Only a single unit with Annihilation Protocol may be taken in armies using the Nodal Command Force Organisation Chart that contains any Fortifications.

Awakening Protocols (Tier)

This rule is accompanied by a tier of Bronze, Silver, Gold, and Platinum. Units with this rule can only be included in lists which contain an HQ model with the corresponding Nodal Command tier or higher. Some units have both of these special rules, in which case they cannot satisfy this rules requirements with their own Nodal Command special rule.

Command Protocols

At the start of the game, after both sides have deployed, each unit with this ability may select a Command Protocol that can be used during the game. Many options allow the player to roll a Command Protocol check for additional benefits. To do so, roll a Leadership Check, with success granting the listed effects. Failure causes the listed negative effect immediately.

Protocol of Eternal Guardian

This model may give up their Shooting Attacks this turn to use this power during the Movement Phase. Select a single friendly Necron unit within Nodal Range that has not moved yet and apply one of the following affects to the unit:

- The chosen unit gains a 5+ Cover Save, but may not Run, until your next turn

You may choose to make a Command Protocol check before using this power, if the check is successful two different options may be applied. If the Check is failed,

Protocol of Sudden Storm

This model may give up their Shooting Attacks this turn to use this power during the Movement Phase. Select a single friendly Necron unit within Nodal Range that has not moved yet and apply one of the following affects to the unit:

- The chosen unit may immediately move a number of inches up to twice its unmodified Initiative Characteristic. If the chosen unit has mixed Initiative Characteristics, use the highest unmodified Characteristics.
- The chosen unit ignores Difficult and Dangerous Terrain alongside negative modifiers to their movement until your next turn.

You may choose to make a Command Protocol check before using this power, if the check is successful two different options may be applied. If the Check is failed, the target unit may only move half their Movement (rounded down) this turn.

Protocol of Vengeful Stars

This model may give up their Shooting Attacks this turn to use this power during the Shooting Phase. Select a single friendly Necron unit within Nodal Range that has not shot yet and apply one of the following affects to the unit:

- The chosen unit's Ranged Weapons gain the Ignores Cover rule until your next turn.
- The chosen unit's Ranged Weapons gain Breaching (6+) or increase the level of Breaching or Rending by 1 until your next turn.
- The chosen unit gains Relentless until your next turn.

You may choose to make a Command Protocol check before using this power, if the check is successful two different options may be applied. If the Check is failed, the target unit suffers -1 BS this turn.

Protocol of the Hungry Void

This model may give up their Shooting Attacks this turn to use this power during the Shooting Phase. Select a single friendly Necron unit within Nodal Range apply one of the following affects to the unit:

- The chosen unit gains the Counter Charge (1) special rule until your next turn.
- The chosen unit's Melee Weapons gain Breaching (6+) or increase the level of Breaching or Rending by 1 until your next turn.
- The chosen unit gains the Furious Charge (1) special rule until your next turn.

You may choose to make a Command Protocol check before using this power, if the check is successful two different options may be applied. If the Check is failed, the target unit suffers -1 WS this turn.

Protocol of the Undying Legions

This model may give up their Shooting Attacks this turn to use this power during the Shooting Phase. Select a single friendly Necron unit within Nodal Range and apply one of the following affects to the unit:

- The chosen unit can re-roll results of 1 once for Reanimation Protocols until next turn. Dynastic Warriors can re-rolls results of 1-2.
- The chosen unit's Living Metal ability has its It Will Not Die level increased by 2 levels (e.g. 5+ -> 3+) until your next turn.

You may choose to make a Command Protocol check before using this power, if the check is successful two different options may be applied. If the Check is failed, the target unit suffers -1 to Reanimation Protocol rolls until next turn.

Protocol of the Conquering Tyrant

This model may give up their Shooting Attacks this turn to use this power during the Movement Phase. Select a single friendly Necron unit within Nodal Range and apply one of the following affects to the unit:

- The chosen unit counts as being in Nodal Range of all units with the Command Protocols special ability until your next turn.
- The chosen unit gains the Hit & Run ability until your next turn.

You may choose to make a Command Protocol check before using this power, if the check is successful two different options may be applied. If the Check is failed, the target unit gains the Soulless Hordes (Bronze) trait this turn, if it did not already have it, and cannot ignore the Engrammatic Attack Patterns provision this turn.

Curse of Llandu'gor

A model with this special rule does not suffer the penalties for low Levels of Alliance (e.g. the Leadership penalty for By the Phaeron's), although its allied units still do.

Drawn to Blood

A model with this special rule must start the game in Reserve or Infiltrate. Each time an enemy unit is completely destroyed the Necron player may move one unit with the Flayer sub-type from Reserve into Ongoing Reserve, even if this means that a unit will appear turn One. Independent Characters may be attached to their units when entering.

Nodal Command (Tier)

This rule is accompanied by a tier of Bronze, Silver, Gold, and Platinum. Each tier provides a specified range known as Nodal Range, which many other abilities reference for their effects. Any unit within Nodal Range of this unit may use its Leadership in place of its own and units with the Soulless Hordes sub-type may ignore the Engrammatic Attack Patterns provision. The highest tier unit in your army must be your Warlord.

Tier	Nodal Range
Bronze	6"
Silver	9"
Gold	12"
Platinum	12"

Mark of the Flayer

If this model or its attached unit destroys an enemy unit during the Assault Phase or fails a Morale check, immediately roll a D6 and apply the result as determined below:

D6 Result

- Berserk: The model is seized by murderous fury and unable to tell friend from foe. If part of an infantry unit, resolve D3 automatic hits on that unit using the model's weapons. If alone, the model suffers an immediate Wound, with no save allowed.
- In Control: The model is able to control their madness by sheer force of will, giving no effect.
- Transfiguration: The model is transfigured by madness, their auto-repair system distorting their form to express the malignance that consumes them. They gains the Fearless and Rage (1) trait until the end of combat.

Entropic Strike (X)

When allocating wounds from a Wound Pool from a weapon with this special rule, lower the target model's Armour Save by 1 (e.g. 3+ -> 4+) permanently before making its save. Against Vehicles, an Armour Penetration roll equal to or greater than the listed value lowers the AV of all facings by 1 permanently before resolving the effects. Vehicles with lowered to an AV of 0 are destroyed and removed from the battlefield.

Ethereal Interceptors

This unit is may perform a separate Deep Strike Assault. Additionally, it may make use of the Ethereal Interception Advanced Reaction.

Exile Ray (X)

When firing a weapon with this special rule, a To Wound roll equal to or higher than the value listed wounds automatically, regardless of the target's Toughness, has the Instant Death special rule, and the victim must re-roll successful Invulnerable saves. Against Vehicles and Buildings, an Armour Penetration roll equal to or higher than the listed value inflicts a Penetrating Hit.

Gauss (X)

When firing a weapon with this special rule, a To Wound roll equal to or higher than the value listed wounds automatically, regardless of the target's Toughness. Against vehicles and buildings, an Armour Penetration roll equal to or higher than the value listed inflicts a Glancing hit.

Hyperspace Hunters

A unit with this rule specializes in combat that makes use of movement through hyperspace pocket dimensions. In your Movement Phase, this unit may slip back into hyperspace instead of moving, as long as it did not arrive from Reserves this turn and is not locked in combat or Falling Back. If it does so, remove it from the board and place it into Ongoing Reserves. It can be assigned to a Deep Strike Assault as normal on your Next Player Turn. Models with this rule still make It Will Not Die rolls while placed back into reserves.

Decurion/Tesseractarion Nemesor

The Decurion Nemesor / Tesseractarion Nemesor special rule grants the following benefits:

- Rites of War: If a Detachment with the Necron Faction includes at least one model with the Decurion Nemesor special rule then that Detachment may select a single Rite of War.
- Lord of the Legion: An army may only include a maximum of one model with this special rule per 1,000 points. This counts across all Detachments of an army.
- A model with this special rule may also include an Immortals, Pariah Lychguard, or Royal Lychguard unit as part of the same Force Organisation slot as the model with the Decurion Nemesor special rule, but must still meet the required Awakening Protocols tier.

If multiple units are eligible to take this ability, it can only be taken by those with the highest Nodal Command tier in the force that has not already taken this ability.

Path of Annihilation (X)

When the weapon with this special rule is used to make a Shooting Attack, draw a line a number of inches wide equal to the Level in the brackets from the model up to the listed range of the weapon — this is the projectile's path.

- For each model (friend and enemy) caught in the path (except the firing model), roll to hit as usual for a Shooting Attack, with each model suffering a hit if successful. Models with the Flyer sub-type are not affected unless the controlling player decides to affect only models with the Flyer sub-type.
- If a Terrain piece, Building, or model with the Vehicle Unit Type or any model with 6 or more Wounds is successfully hit and does not suffer a Penetrating Hit or unsaved Wound the attack is blocked and its path will go no further than that model. The blocking model will however, suffer D3 additional hits.
- If a model with the Vehicle Unit Type and the Transport Sub-Type suffers a Penetrating Hit from a weapon with this special rule, each unit Embarked on it suffers D6 hits from the weapon, in addition to any other effects. Any Wounds caused are allocated by the controller of the target unit.
- If a model with the Void Shields special rule is successfully hit by this attack and the Void Shield suffers a Penetrating Hit, immediately resolve another hit against the next Void Shield or the model itself if no Void Shields remain until an Armour Penetration roll is failed. If an Armour Penetration roll is failed against a Void shield the attack is blocked and its path will go no further than that model and it suffers no additional hits.
- Successful Invulnerable Saves and Feel No Pain Damage Mitigation rolls must be re-rolled. Successful Shrouded Damage Mitigation rolls are considered to have not hit the model.

Reanimation Protocols

Whenever a friendly unit with Reanimation Protocols suffers unsaved wounds or resolves an effect causing wounds, and casualties have been removed, total the number of wounds that have been lost among models that were destroyed and put them into a Reassembling Pool and a second Reassembling Pool for wounds that have the Instant Death special rule.

For each wound in the Reassembling Pool, roll a D6, subtracting 1 for wounds in the Instant Death Reassembling Pool. This unit is Reanimating a wound for every 5+ roll. Each time such a unit Reanimates a wound, perform the following steps:

- If that unit is less than its Starting Strength, return one destroyed model to play in cohesion range with one wound remaining.
- Then, if that unit is at its Starting Strength and has models that are missing any wounds, select a model with the lowest remaining wounds; it regains one lost wound.

If this unit would be destroyed by the attack or effect, Reanimation Protocols still triggers; perform the process as normal, however after models have been returned from successful Reanimation rolls, if there are remaining wounds in the Wound Pool, continue allocating those to the newly Reanimated models until the Wound Pool is empty or all Reanimation rolls have failed; these remaining wounds can cause further Reanimation Protocols triggers. Do note that effects that simply destroy the unit (e.g. Sweeping Advance) do not trigger Reanimation Protocols.

When assigning wounds to units that have multiple models missing any wounds, assign them to the models with the least amount of wounds. In case of ties, the attacking player decides which models to apply them to.

Certain effects can cause models to immediately begin Reassembling or Reanimating; Reassembling models create a Reassembling Pool equal to the lost wounds of those model and then roll for them as normal. Reanimating models immediately follow the steps for reanimating a number of times equal to the wounds of the destroyed model.

Soulless Hordes (X)

Models with the Soulless Hordes subtype are subject to the Engrammatic Attack Patterns provision, which has effects dependent on the tier of the subtype:

Bronze: During the controlling player's Shooting phase and Charge sub-phase, the Soulless Hordes unit must attempt a Shooting Attack if there is an enemy unit within range (they are not forced to charge), and must target the closest enemy unit possible that is within its line of sight and a valid target for a Shooting Attack or Charge. If two or more targets are equally close then the controlling player chooses which will be the target of a Shooting Attack or Charge. Similar to the Fearless rule, this unit cannot choose to fail a Morale check due to the Our Weapons Are Useless special rule. Additionally, they may not make Reactions.

Silver: During the controlling player's Shooting phase and Charge sub-phase, if the unit attempts a Shooting Attack and/or Charge they must target the closest enemy unit possible that is within its line of sight and a valid target for a Shooting Attack or Charge. If two or more targets are equally close then the controlling player chooses which will be the target of a Shooting Attack or Charge. Similar to the Fearless rule, units with this subtype cannot use any Reactions that grant a Cover Save, Armour Save or Invulnerable Save, and cannot choose to fail a Morale check due to the Our Weapons Are Useless special rule.

The Command Protocols trait is able to suppress this sub-type's effects while in Nodal Range.

Teleportation Reserves

If a unit in your army has equipment that allows them to interact with Teleportation Reserves — such as the Eternity Gate — you may have any units from your army start out in Teleportation Reserves. Certain abilities and wargear allow you to bring units from Teleportation Reserves onto the Battlefield, move units into Teleportation Reserves, or otherwise interact with them and will be detailed in their respective sections. While in Teleportation Reserves a unit cannot use any Deep-Strike or other Reserve abilities and may only enter play through another unit or effect that would allow it.

In addition, while in Teleportation Reserves a unit is actively repaired by the Tomb World's vast resources and expertise: At the start of your Player Turn a unit in Teleportation Reserves reassembles a number of wounds equal to the amount of lost wounds from any models plus the amount of wounds among destroyed models in the unit. within 2" of the target unit.

Tomb Guardians

Only a single unit with the Tomb Guardians rule may be used in any army which is built using the Nodal Command Force Organisation Chart and does not contain any Fortifications, should the army contain Fortifications there is no limit.

Tesla (X)

When firing a weapon with this special rule, a To Hit roll equal to or higher than the value listed generates an additional 2 hits. These hits may be applied to the target unit, or to any unit

Unit Subtypes

Models with the Living Metal subtypes gain a number of effects:

- Models with the Living Metal subtype have the It Will Not Die (5+) Special rule.

- The Shock Pulse and Disruption special rules affect models with the Living Metal subtype.
- Models with the Living Metal subtype ignore Leadership penalties caused by the Anethema sub-type.
- Models with the Living Metal subtype may not make Sweeping Advances, unless a rule specifies otherwise.
- Vehicles with the Living Metal subtype ignore the effects of Crew Shaken (but still lose a Hull Point).
- Heavy or Super-Heavy Vehicles with the Living metal subtype are not subject to the particular effects of the Lance and Melta special rules by attacks made against it and reduce the effects of all rolls on the Vehicle Damage chart caused by Penetrating hits (other than by Destroyer type weaponry) by -1.

Canoptek

Models with the Canoptek subtype gain the Fearless special rule.

Destroyer

Models with the Destroyer subtype gain a number of effects:

- All models gain the Preferred Enemy (Non-Necrons) special rule.
- All models gain the Hardwired for Destruction special rule, which grants: Units with the Destroyer sub-type ignore the Living Metal sub-type's restriction on performing Sweeping Advances.

Flayer

Models with the Flayer subtype gain a number of effects:

- All models gain the Hatred (Non-Necrons) special rule.
- All models gain the Fear (2) special rule.
- All models gain the Deep-Strike and Infiltrate special rule,
- All models gain the Flesh Hunters special rule, which grants: Units with the Flayer sub-type ignore the Living Metal sub-type's restriction on performing Sweeping Advances.

Floating

A unit that includes only models with the Floating sub-type may ignore the effects of any and all terrain it passes over during movement, including passing over vertical terrain and Impassable Terrain without penalty or restriction. However, such units may not begin or end their movement in Impassable Terrain, and if beginning or ending their movement in Dangerous Terrain must take Dangerous Terrain tests as normal.

Noble

A model with the Noble sub-type gains the Independent Character special rule.

Advanced Reaction:

Dynasty Effect:

Maynarkh

Maynarkh Dynasty Necron units gain the Necron Dynasty (Maynarkh) special rule, which grants the TODO: This advanced reaction and Cursed Awakening special rule.

Any unit with the Necron Dynasty (Maynarkh) special rule and Character sub-type may take any of the following:

- Mark of the Player special rule 0 points.
- Bloodswarm Scarabs 5 points.

Any unit with the Necron Dynasty (Maynarkh) special rule may take any of the following:

- Flensing Scarabs +10 points.

Advanced Reaction:

Necron Dynasty (Maynarkh) (Cursed Awakening): When a unit made up of entirely models with the Necron Dynasty (Maynarkh) special rule attacks during the Fight phase against an enemy unit that is Pinned, Falling Back, or outnumbered by the attack unit it gets a +1 to all To Wound or Armour Penetration rolls made during the Assault. Furthermore if one or more models with this special rule are part of a combat that results in a draw, then the side that includes one or more models at the end of the fight sub-phase with this special rule is counted as having won the combat by 1 point. If both sides include models with this special rule then the combat remains a draw. Models with the Decurion/Tesseracterion Nemesis special ability may also take Charnel Lychguard as a part of the same Force Organization slot.

Mephrit

Mephrit Dynasty Necron units gain the Necron Dynasty (Mephrit) special rule, which grants the Solar Fury advanced reaction and Stellar Destruction special rule.

Any unit with the Necron Dynasty (Mephrit) special rule may take any of the following:

- Stellar Energetic Reactors +10 points.

Advanced Reaction (Solar Fury): This Advanced Reaction may be made once per battle during the opposing player's Shooting phase when any enemy unit declares a Shooting Attack targeting a friendly unit under the Reactive player's control composed entirely of models with the Necron Dynasty (Mephrit) special rule. Once the Active player has resolved all To Hit and To Wound rolls, and Armour Saves are made, but before any Damage Mitigation rolls are made or casualties removed, the Reactive player may make a Shooting Attack, targeting the unit that triggered this Reaction, with all weapons increasing their AP by 1 but gaining the Gets Hot special rule. To Hit rolls for weapons that already possess the Gets Hot special rule trigger that special rule on a roll of 1 or 2 during this Shooting Attack, instead of only on a 1. A unit that makes a Solar Fury as part of a Solar Fury Reaction may not make any attacks indirectly (without line of sight) including weapons with the Barrage special rule or other weapon or special rule that otherwise ignore line of sight, and Vehicles may only fire Defensive weapons. Template weapons used as part of a Solar Fury Reaction use the Wall of Death rule instead of firing normally.

Necron Dynasty (Mephrit) (Stellar Destructors): When a unit made up of entirely models with the Necron Dynasty (Mephrit) special rule rolls for scatter with a Blast Weapon they roll a D6 instead of 2D6.

Nephrekh

Nephrekh Dynasty Necron units gain the Necron Dynasty (Nephrekh) special rule, which grants the Beings of Light advanced reaction and Translocation Beamers special rule.

Advanced Reaction (Beings of Light): This Advanced Reaction may be made once per battle during the opposing player's Shooting phase when any enemy unit declares a Shooting Attack targeting a friendly unit with the Infantry Unit Type under the Reactive player's control with the Necron Dynasty (Nephrekh) special rule. All models in the Reacting unit gain the Feel No Pain (5+) special rule against all Wounds inflicted as part of the Shooting Attack that triggered this Reaction. If the Reacting unit already has a version of the Feel No Pain (X) special rule, then this does not stack or increase that rule, and the Reacting player may choose to use any one of the Feel No Pain (X) special rules available to them. Once the Shooting Attack has been completely resolved, the Reactive player may make a Shooting Attack, targeting the unit that triggered this Reaction.

Necron Dynasty (Nephrekh) (Translocation Beamers): A unit made up of entirely models with the Necron Dynasty (Nephrekh) special rule has a 6+ Invulnerability Save and the Moves Through Cover special rule.

Nihilakh

Advanced Reaction:

Dynasty Effect:

Any unit with the Necron Dynasty (Novokh) special rule may take any of the following:

Advanced Reaction (Blood Engrams): This Advanced Reaction may be made once per battle in the opposing player's turn, when any enemy unit with one or more models within 12" of a friendly unit made up entirely of models with the Necron Dynasty (Novokh) special rule is moved during the Movement phase. Once the enemy unit that triggered this Reaction has been moved, but before any other units are moved, a single friendly unit made up entirely of models with the Necron Dynasty (Novokh) special rule that can draw a line of sight to the enemy unit that moved may immediately move up to a number of inches equal to twice the highest Initiative Characteristic in the unit and then declare a Charge targeting the enemy unit that moved if it is within 12". A Charge declared as part of this Reaction is resolved immediately (the enemy unit may not declare any Reaction against this Charge), and if successful the combat will be fought as normal in the following Assault phase, with a Charging unit with the Necron Dynasty (Novokh) special rule gaining all the normal benefits of Charging.

Necron Dynasty (Novokh) (Awakened By Murder): In the Fight sub-phase, after casualties have been removed but before determining which side has won, if this unit has caused unsaved wounds to the enemy unit it enters Engrammatic Blood Rage until the end of the game. When in Engrammatic Blood Rage, this unit gains the Fearless, Furious Charge (1), and Rage (1) special rules.

Sautekh

Advanced Reaction:

Dynasty Effect:

Szarekhan

Szarekhan Dynasty Necron units gain the Necron Dynasty (Szarekhan) special rule, which grants the TODO advanced reaction and Uncanny Artifice special rule.

Any unit with the Necron Dynasty (Szarekhan) special rule may take any of the following:

- Master-Work special rule on one of their weapons +10 points.

Advanced Reaction (Undying Empire): This Advanced Reaction may be made once per battle in the opposing player's turn, when any enemy unit declares a Shooting Attack targeting a friendly unit under the Reactive player's control composed entirely of models with the Necron Dynasty (Szarekhan) special rule. Once the Active player has completed their attack and casualties are removed, during the resulting Reanimation Protocols rolls: after you have created a Reassembling Pool, double its size. After you have finished your Reanimation Protocols rolls, the reacting unit may immediately move a number of inches equal to twice the lowest initiative in the unit.

Necron Dynasty (Szarekhan) (Uncanny Artifice): Units with this special rule may give any of their weapons Master-Crafted for 10 pts/weapon. Additionally, units with this special rule gain the Stubborn special rule.

Thokt

- Radioactive Energetics +10 points.
- Rad-Receptors +2 points.

Advanced Reaction:

Technoarkana

Bloodswarm Scarabs

Friendly units with the Flyer sub-type can re-roll the scatter dice when arriving from Deep Strike Reserve.

Dispersion Shield

Grants a 3+ Invulnerable Save, but the wielder never receives +1 Attack for fighting with two Melee weapons. In addition, if this save is made against a shooting attack, the bearer may take a -1 penalty to the Invulnerable Save to attempt to reflect the weapon into a nearby enemy. If the save is successful, choose an unengaged enemy unit within 6": that unit then suffers a single hit equivalent to the attack that was saved. This option may not be used on Blast or Template weapons. For the purpose of cover and other effects, treat the reflected shots as having come from the bearer's unit.

Dynastic Ankh

Some sort of vexilla style benefit.

Eternity Gate

For each Eternity gate, at the start of each friendly turn you may choose one mode of operation:

- Choose one friendly unengaged Necron unit without the Vehicle Unit-Type that is on the battlefield or in Teleportation Reserves. If the unit is in Teleportation Reserves it immediately arrives this turn (no dice roll is required) and is placed as if it were disembarking from the Monolith. If the chosen unit is currently on the battlefield it is first removed from the table and placed into Teleportation Reserves, after which you may also place the unit as if it were disembarking from the Monolith.
- All enemy models without the Vehicle Unit-Type within D6" of the Monolith's portal and in line of sight to it must make a Strength Check. Failure causes the model to suffer an immediate Instant Death wound with no saves or Damage Mitigation rolls allowed.

Models with an Eternity Gate can be boarded following the normal rules for Transport, however place the unit into Teleportation Reserves instead.

Flensing Scarabs

During the first round of each close combat, this unit's weapons count as having the Shred special rule. Units with the Necron Dynasty (Maynarkh) special rule may also take this wargear.

Gloom Prism

This model gains the Anathema sub-type. Additionally, any psychic power targeting a unit within 3" of this model is nullified on a 4+.

Gravity Displacement Pack

At the start of the controlling player's Movement phase, a model with a Gravity Displacement Pack may set its Move Characteristic to a value of 12 for the duration of the controlling player's turn (sometimes referred to as 'activating' the jump pack). This allows a model with a Gravity Displacement Pack to move up to 12", regardless of the Movement Characteristic shown on its profile and gain any other benefits of a Movement Characteristic of 12 (including the bonus to Charge distance). In addition, all models with a Gravity Displacement Pack that have been activated ignore terrain while Moving and Charging, but must take Dangerous Terrain tests as normal when beginning or ending their Movement in Dangerous Terrain. A model with an activated Gravity Displacement

Pack pack may move over both friendly and enemy models or units without penalty – but must end its Movement at least 1" away from any model from another unit.

A model with a Gravity Displacement Pack may still Run if it would normally be able to Run (this does not allow units that include any models with the Heavy Sub-type to Run). When making a Run move for a model with an activated Gravity Displacement Pack, add the Initiative Characteristic of that model to 12 to determine how far it may move – the model ignores terrain and models from other units while making a Run move with a Gravity Displacement Pack as previously noted, but may not make Shooting Attacks or declare a Charge in the same turn in which it has Run as per the normal rules for Running.

During a Reaction made in any Phase, a player may not choose to activate a model's Gravity Displacement Pack to gain any bonus to its Movement Characteristic.

Hyper-Oubliette Navigator

The Ethereal Interception Advanced Reaction can be performed by this unit for 0 Reaction Allotment. Additionally, the may opt to re-roll Deep-Strike scatter rolls.

Mindshackle Scarabs

At the start of the Fight sub-phase, select a model in base contact with the bearer. The target must take a Leadership Check on 3D6. If the Check is failed, the victim strikes at his allies instead of attacking normally. During the Fight sub-phase, the target makes his attacks against his own unit (automatically hitting if they are the only model in the unit), resolved as normal with any abilities and penalties from his weapons (the controller of the Mindshackle Scarbs chooses which, if there is a choice). If the target is still alive, the victim returns to normal once all blows in that round of combat have been struck. Dreadnoughts and Automata may re-roll failed Leadership tests for this effect.

Phylactery

Increase the models It Will Not Die level to 3+.

Phase Shifter

Grants a 4+ Invulnerable Save.

Stellar Energetic Reactors

This wargear may only be taken by units with the Necron Dynasty (Mephrit) special rule. When making Shooting attacks, this unit's weapons count as having the Shred special rule.

Shadow Ankh

The bearer gains the Anathema sub-type.

Radioactive Energetics

Any melee Hits allocated to models locked in combat with one or more units that include a model with Radioactive Energetics require one lower result To Wound than they would normally, to a minimum of 2+. This effect is not cumulative with itself if more than one model in a combat has Radioactive Energetics. Models with Radioactive Energetics are immune to the effects of rad grenades, the Rad-phage special rule and the rad furnaces or Radioactive Energetics of models they are locked in combat with. In addition, Hits from weapons with the Rad-phage special rule that are allocated to a model with Radioactive Energetics only successfully wound on a To Wound roll of a 6+.

Rad-Receptors

This wargear may only be taken by units with the Necron Dynasty (Thokt) special rule. When making Shooting attacks, this unit's weapons count as having the Rad-Phage special rule.s

Resurrection Orb

Once per battle, on your turn, the bearer can activate their Resurrection Orb. If it does, select one friendly unit with Reanimation Protocols within Nodal Range. The bearer of the Orb and the selected unit immediately reassembles a number of wounds equal to the total number of missing wounds and number of wounds from all destroyed models.

Semipternal Weave

Increase the model's save to 2+.

Sepulchral Scarabs

Increase this model's It Will Not Die level to 3+.

Tesseract Labyrinth

One use only.

The bearer can use the Tesseract Labyrinth in lieu of making a Shooting or Close Combat attack this round. Target a unit within 6": the target unit must immediately roll a Wounds Check for each model based on their current remaining wounds or be trapped within the Labyrinth.

This can also be used to carry a unit alongside the bearer. If you do so, select a unit to start the game inside the Tesseract Labyrinth. They can be disembarked as if they were in a Transport with no Special Abilities, following the relevant rules. If the bearer dies, the embarked unit is lost and considered destroyed for the purposes of objectives.

If paired with the Mindshackle Scarabs wargear, an embarked unit can also be chosen from an enemy faction. The unit is treated as a Distrusted Ally and must still take up a relevant Force Org Slot. In narrative games, units that are captured at the end of the game can be included as well. Leave it your opponents as to whether it includes a Force Org Slot or points.

Translocation Shroud

The bearer and its attached unit gains the Fleet (2) special rule. When moving, the bearer and its attached unit can move over all other models and terrain as if they were open ground. However, they cannot end their move on top of other models and can only end their move on top of impassable terrain if it is possible to actually place the models on top of it.

Quantum Shielding

A vehicle equipped with active quantum shielding reduces the strength of attacks to its Front and Side Armour by -2. A vehicle's quantum shielding is active until it suffers a penetrating hit, at which point it immediately deactivates. For the remainder of the battle after a vehicle's quantum shielding deactivates, all subsequent hits against that vehicle (including hits made from subsequent shooting attacks in the same phase – either from a different weapon or a different unit – or hits made at a lower Initiative step in close combat) are treated as though the vehicle was not equipped with quantum shielding.

Quantum Shielding

A vehicle equipped with a Quantum Shielding Matrix and Quantum Shielding whose Quantum Shielding has been deactivated in a previous round may attempt to reactivate it. At the start of your turn, roll a D6: on a 5+ the vehicle Quantum Shielding reactivates and functions as normal.

Artefacts of the Aeons

Cryptek Conclave Disciplines

When taking a Cryptek or Cryptek Lord, a Discipline must be taken from the list below, which grants a number of options, abilities, and restrictions to the unit.

Harbingers of Despair _____ X pts

Psychomancers must take an Abyssal Staff when selecting the Harbingers of Despair as their Discipline.

Abyssal Staff

Name	Range	Type	S	AP	Abilities
Abyssal Staff (Shooting)	Template	Assault 1	8	1	Shroud of Despair
Abyssal Staff (Melee)	—	Melee	8	1	Shroud of Despair

Shroud of Despair: To Wound rolls are made against the target's Leadership (modified by Fear) rather than Toughness. The attack has no effect against Vehicles.

Atavindicator _____ X pts

The bearer can activate the Atavindicator at the end of their Movement: Target an enemy unit that does not have the Vehicle Unit Type within 18". The targeted unit must make a Leadership Check on 3D6. Failure causes each model in the unit to automatically hit itself with a S+1 AP — melee attack.

In addition, once per game, at the start of any friendly Movement phase, the bearer can use the Veil of Darkness to remove himself and his unit from the table, even if they are locked in combat. They then immediately arrive anywhere on the board using the rules for Deep Strike. The bearer also has the Transpositional Defence Advanced Reaction.

In addition, when this special rule is used, enemy units targeting the bearer or his unit can only fire Snap Shots until the start of the bearer's next turn.

Quantum Orb _____ X pts

Once per battle, at the start of your turn, the bearer can activate this item. If it does, select one point on the battlefield anywhere within 24" of the bearer and place a marker at that point. At the start of your next turn, resolve a S8 AP 3 Large Blast hit directly on that location.

Harbingers of Eternity _____ X pts

Chronomancers must take an Aeonstave when selecting the Harbingers of Eternity as their Discipline.

Chronometron _____ X pts

A model with a Chronometron can re-roll one of its D6 rolls each phase alongside granting a 6+ Invulnerable Save. Canoptek Cloak _____ X pts

Increase the bearer's move to 12" and it gains the Fleet (1) rule alongside the Antigra and Light sub-type.

Canoptek Control Node _____ X pts

Double your Nodal Range when determining whether a friendly Necron unit with the Canoptek Sub-Type is within it. TODO: Reaction to shoot back better?

Fail-Safe Overcharger _____ X pts

At the start of the Movement Phase, this model may give up its Shooting attacks for this turn to use this power. If you do so, make a Leadership Check. Failure causes an immediate wound to the selected unit that only Invulnerability and Damage Mitigation rolls can prevent. Success allows you to select a single friendly Necron unit with the Canoptek Sub-Type with Nodal Range and apply one of the following effects to that unit.

- The chosen unit gains +1 BS until the end of the next turn.
- The chosen unit gains +1 WS until the end of the next turn.
- The chosen unit gains +1 A until the end of the next turn.
- The chosen unit gains a 6+ Invulnerability Save until the end of the next turn.
- The chosen unit gains +3 M until the end of the next turn.

You may attempt to apply multiple options at once to the same unit or to multiple units within Nodal Range by taking a cumulative -1 penalty to your Leadership Check for each option after the first. The same option may be taken multiple times. If applying options to multiple units, a failed check causes an immediate wound to each unit as described above.

Phylacterine Hive _____ X pts

Once per battle, when using your Rites of Reanimation ability, you may select a non-friendly unit with Reanimation Protocols (Such as Destroyer Cult or Flayer Virus units) to be affected.

Rites of Reanimation

After this model has moved, select a friendly unit with Reanimation Protocols within Nodal Range on the bearer. That unit immediately reassembles a number of wounds equal to the number of lost wounds plus the number of wounds from all destroyed models, but roll with a -1 modifier if the unit is not a Dynastic Warriors Phalanx.

Harbingers of Transmogrification _____ X pts

Geomancers and Alchemists must take an Tremorstave when selecting the Harbingers of Transmogrification as their Discipline.

Tremorstave _____ X pts

Name	Range	Type	S	AP	Abilities
Tremorstave (Shooting)	36"	Assault 1	4	—	Blast, Pinning, Quake
Tremorstave (Melee)	—	Melee	User	—	Pinning

Quake: After resolving all wounds, leave the Blast marker in place, or otherwise mark the area. This area now counts as Difficult Terrain until the start of the next turn of the player that made the attack.

Harp of Dissonance _____ X pts

Name	Range	Type	S	AP	Abilities
Harp of Dissonance	∞	Assault 1	6	—	Entropic Strike (4+)

Cryptogeometric Adjuster X pts

At the start of your Shooting Phase, select an enemy unit within 18". Until the end of your next turn, whenever that unit measures distance for Shooting attacks or Charges, treat the distance between the attacking unit and the target as 6" longer than the actual distance for Shooting Attacks and 3" longer than the actual distance for Charges.

Seismic Crucible X pts

At the start of your Shooting Phase, select an enemy unit within 18". Until the start of your next turn, if that unit has the Vehicle Unit-Type it treats all terrain as Difficult terrain, otherwise it treats all terrain as Difficult and Dangerous terrain.

Storm of Heavenly Fire

At the end of the C'tan's Movement phase, place a Large Blast marker centered over the model. All models under the marker (friend and foe, other than the C'tan) immediately suffer a single Strength 6 AP 3 hit with the Ignores Cover special rule.

Wave of Withering

Name	Range	Type	S	AP	Abilities
Wave of Withering (Transcendent)		Hellstorm Destroyer 1	9	1	—

Specialist Powers

Gaze of Death

In its Shooting phase this model can target one non-vehicle enemy unit within 12" to which it has line of sight. Roll a number of dice determined by the C'Tan's level: a Shard rolls 3D6 and a Transcendent rolls 4D6. The enemy unit suffers a number of wounds equal to the rolled total minus their Leadership. These are resolved at AP2 and with the Ignores Cover special rule. If at least one unsaved Wound is inflicted, the C'tan immediately regains one Wound lost earlier in the battle.

Lord of Fire (X)

All Flamer weapons (as well as Heat Rays, Burnas, Skorchas, Inferno Cannons and any other weapons which is described as using 'flame' or 'fire' as its effect or in its special rules) and weapons with the melta type fired within 12" of the C'Tan have a chance of exploding.

Roll a D6 each time such a weapon is fired within range. On a roll equal or greater to this power's level, the weapon detonates. If carried by a non-vehicle model, the model immediately suffers a single Wound with an AP value equal to that of the weapon that was used to attack (Armour Saves, Invulnerable Saves and Feel No Pain rolls can be taken, but not Cover Saves or Shrouded rolls) – this Wound cannot be allocated to any other model in the unit. A Vehicle instead rolls an additional D6. If this roll results in a 1 or 2, the Vehicle suffers a Glancing Hit.

Shard: Lord of Fire (6+)

Transcendent: Lord of Fire (5+)

Gaze of the Abyss

If this model would be targeted by a Shooting Attack or Charge, the attacking unit must immediately make a Morale Test. Additionally, the C'Tan has the Fear ability at a level dependent on its level.

Shard: Fear (2)

Transcendent: Fear (3)

Grand Illusion

After all forces have been deployed and all Scout moves have been made, roll a dice dependent on the C'Tan's level: a D3 for Shard and D6 for Transcendent. You can immediately redeploy this many units, subject to the normal deployment rules for the mission. This power can be used to move units into or out of, reserve.

Voltaic Storm

After this model has completed its movement, target an enemy Vehicle, Dreadnought, or Automata unit within 18" with this power. Roll a D6 to determine the effect, dependent on the C'Tan's level.

D6	Result
1	No Effect
2-3	A Vehicle Unit Type that is part of the target unit suffers 1 Glancing Hit if Shard Level, or 2 if Transcendent level. Any other model suffers 1 or 2 Wounds respectively. Only Invulnerable Saves or Damage Mitigation rolls may be taken against these.
4-5	A Vehicle Unit Type that is part of the target unit suffers 1 Penetrating Hit if Shard Level, or 2 if Transcendent level. Any other model suffers 1 or 2 Wounds respectively. Only Invulnerable Saves or Damage Mitigation rolls may be taken against these. Re-roll results of Crew Stunned and Explodes.
6	A Vehicle Unit Type that is part of the target unit suffers 1 Penetrating Hi, or 2 if Transcendent level. Any other model suffers 1 or 2 Wounds respectively. Only Invulnerable Saves or Damage Mitigation rolls may be taken against these.

C'Tan Special Rules

Drain Life

Damage Mitigation rolls cannot be taken for wounds caused by this model.

Flaming Vessel

At the start of the Fight sub-phase, center a 5" Large Blast Template on this model. Each unit, except for the C'Tan, suffers a S6 AP 5 Armourbane (Melta) hit for each model underneath the template.

Matter Absorption

At the end of the turn, if an enemy Vehicle or Dreadnought was destroyed as a result of an attack made by this model, the Void Dragon immediately make a check against this model's It Will Not Die ability for each model destroyed. If successful, it regains a lost Wound and remove any wrecks for the respective vehicle from play.

Misdirection

Attacks made against this model suffer a -1 penalty to BS and WS. When targeted by a Shooting Attack, the range between an attacking unit and this unit is considered to be 6" further than the actual range between the two units. In addition, when attacked by a weapon with the Barrage special rule, this model is always treated as though it was out of line of sight when scattering any attacks.

Unfathomable Horror

When an enemy unit is called to take a Morale test caused by this model, enemy models with the Fearless special rule are treated as instead having the Stubborn special rule, and enemy models with the Stubborn special rule are treated as not having that special rule.

Reactions

Ethereal Interception

If this unit is in Deep-Strike reserves, this reaction may be made after an enemy unit arrives from Reserves and has finished all of their movement. The reacting unit immediately arrives from Reserves, following the rules for Deep Strike Assaults. Then, if it is within Line of Sight of the triggering unit, it may make a Shooting attack against the triggering unit. This reaction may only be used once per turn for each unit with it.

Strategical Timeweaver

When an opponent declares a Shooting Attack or Fights this unit or a unit it is attached to, this reaction may be declared. The triggering unit must re-roll all successful To Hit and To Wound rolls against the reacting unit until the end of the attack, keeping the second result. This re-roll occurs even if the triggering unit's rules (e.g. Shred, Hatred, etc.) have already re-rolled these dice. This reaction may only be used once per game for each unit that is able to make use of this reaction.

TROOPS

The rank and file of the Necron armies are the Dynastic Warriors. Silent as the grave, Warriors move with slow, erratic, yet exacting movements. Despite this sluggishness, Warriors are capable of great accuracy at range and devastating blows up close. Like all Necrons, a Warrior's living metal necrodermis body is incredibly durable, capable of absorbing truly horrendous amounts of fire with hardly a scratch to show for it. When enough punishment is heaped on a Warrior to actually damage it, advanced self-repair protocols undo all but the most severe damage in moments. These seemingly indestructible machines carry Gauss Flayers which utilise theoretically impossible science to strip their target apart on a molecular level. These potent weapons can strip the adamantium from a battle tank's hull as surely as they strip the flesh from a man. Even Power Armour and the enhanced constitution of an Astartes provide limited defence. While the Necron nobility retained their personalities and intellects intact, their Warriors did not come through bio-transference so fortunate. Warriors possess but a dim spark of life, relying in battle on orders given through the Nodal Command network and programmed attack patterns rather than any self-direction or intellect.

TROOPS

As the shock troops of a Tomb World's armies, Immortals have a far wider range and depth of reaction than Warriors, for they have retained much of their tactical and strategic experience from eons ago. Indeed, in many ways, the biotransference to machine bodies and minds only sharpened the Immortals' ability to prosecute war in an efficient fashion. This is not to say that Immortals do not have shortcomings. Like all Dynastic Legions, they are still inescapably tied to the Nodal Command matrix and are reliant upon it for more advanced order. In life, Immortals were the professional soldiery of the Necrontyr empire. In death, they surpass the Warriors in nearly every way. Possessed of even more resilient frames, Necron Immortals prove almost impervious to small arms. Their training and experience in combat survived the process of biotransference undiminished, and Immortals seem to have retained a brighter spark of intellect than their less favoured brethren, although only in regard to the practice of war. Outside of combat, Immortals display about as much personality as a monotask Servitor. Immortals are typically armed with Gauss Blasters, weapons even deadlier than the Gauss Flayers used by Warriors.

Engram Specialization: When taking a Canoptek Plasmacyte model, you must select a specialization: Destructor, Accelerator, or Reanimator. This determines the effects of the model's Metasentient Energization special rule.

Metasentient Energization (Destructor): Once per turn at the start of the Assault Phase, all other models with the Destroyer sub-type in the Plasmacyte's attached unit gains +1 S and +1 A until the end of the turn. If you do so, roll a D6: on a 5+, the unit suffers an immediate Wound, which only Invulnerable Saves and Damage Mitigation rolls can prevent.

Metasentient Energization (Accelerator): Once per turn, after the Plasmacyte or its attached unit fails a Leadership test, you may have the unit re-roll the check. If you do so, roll a D6: on a 5+, the unit suffers an immediate Wound, which only Invulnerable Saves and Damage Mitigation rolls can prevent.

Metasentient Energization (Reanimator): Once per turn, when the Plasmacyte or its attached unit's Reanimation Protocols is triggered, you may add a +1 to all the reanimate rolls. If you do so, roll a D6: on a 4+, the unit suffers an immediate Wound, which only Invulnerable Saves and Damage Mitigation rolls can prevent. Each unit can only ever be affected by one Plasmacyte Reanimator each turn.

Viral Construct: For each unit with the Destroyer sub-type in your army, a Canoptek Plasmacyte Destructor may be taken without taking up a Force Organization slot. For each Cryptek or Cryptek Lord in your army, a Canoptek Plasmacyte Accelerator or Canoptek Plasmacyte Reanimator can be taken without taking up a Force Organization slot. The silver prince nodded, and continued. 'So, here is the lesson.' He extended his arm towards the far dust cloud, as if he were about to implore the oncoming Titans, still ten leagues or more away, with rhetoric. And he said one word: 'Patience.' There was the tiniest, most insignificant little click. And in the same instant, the largest of the three walkers detonated, its central reactors struck dead-on by a sliver of metal moving faster than light itself.

Lords of War

At the heart of many Necron tomb complexes, sleeping Seraptek Heavy Constructs await the footfall of intruders. These brutal war engines were designed by ancient Cryptek conclaves to protect each world's master program, and this they do with merciless efficiency. Generators thrumming, the huge constructs advance with frightening speed, their optic lenses glowing as they pick out their targets. Massive cannons swivel in gimbal housings, crackling with destructive energies before unleashing pinpoint salvos to annihilate the interlopers. Should foes stray too close, the tomb guardians lash out with impaling forelimbs, their energy-sheathed tips rending metal, flesh and bone alike at a molecular level. As the legions of the Necron dynasties march out into the stars in ever-greater numbers, many Necron Overlords have summoned their Seraptek constructs to join their ranks, replacing their timeless vigils with front-line battlefield duties. In this capacity, Seraptek Heavy Constructs have proven mighty engines of conquest, more than capable of meeting an Imperial Knight or Ork Stompa head-on and emerging victorious.

Level of Alliance

Dynastic Allies

The closest of allies who have fought beside each other many times. The two forces are considered 'friendly units' in all regards. This means, for example, that Dynastic Allies may be joined by allied Independent Characters, are treated as friendly units for the targeting of special abilities, Warlord Traits and so on.

Note: Not even Dynastic Allies can embark in allied Transport Vehicles, and rules that affect a particular force owing to its Dynasty special rule do not carry over to Dynastic Allies allied units.

Fellow Warriors

The two forces are willing to fight together for common cause against their foes. Units in your army treat other units at the Fellow Warriors level of Alliance as not being part of the army with the exception that they may not be deliberately targeted, attacked, targeted with special abilities, etc, (note that Blasts and the like may still scatter over allied forces and adversely affect them).

Fellow Warriors cannot benefit from the effects of allied Warlord Traits or be joined by allied Independent Characters, and are not counted as friendly units for the purposes of special abilities. In essence, the two forces fight alongside each other without any additional positive or negative effect.

Distrusted Allies

The two forces can make common cause against an enemy, but never fully trust each other due to a long-standing feud or inherent antipathy. Models in the allied detachment are treated exactly like Fellow Warriors except that units in this allied detachment are never counted as Scoring units and may not hold Objectives.

By the Phaeron's

The two forces will only ever fight beside each other in the direst of circumstances or by the direct command of their royal lord. The two forces are dealt with as Distrusted Allies but, in addition, whenever a unit is within 6" of a unit that is part of a Faction that falls under this level of alliance then both units reduce their Leadership by -1 until they are no longer within 6" of any unit from that Faction that is part of the same army.
